

<Bessie's Flying circus>

They were reading about the first-ever air shows.
Suddenly , the magic key began to glow.
It took the children into an adventure.

The children were at an air show.
It was Bessie's Flying Circus.
Six planes were flying together.
“ I'd like to do that,” said Wilma.
“Me, too!” said Chip and Wilf.
“ I bet that's cold,” said Biff.

Bessie was the pilot of the plane in front.
There were people standing on the wings.
“Look at the wing walkers.”
“They must be brave!”
“ I'd like to do that,” said Wilma.

After the first show had finished, the children saw Bessie.
“Let's talk to her,” said Wilma.
Wilma told Bessie that she wanted to learn to fly, just like her.
“I'm sure you can!” said Bessie.
